Dear Drew,
I know there were a lot of times we didn't hit it off together, but then we had our fun times together too. I'll always remember all those double dates with Ron + Love (even the night we went out in the country!) - EXPLAIN THAT TO YOUR PARENTS. Lots of luck to you. I'll never forget ya. Skylie (Curley)

Dear Andrew D.
It sure would have been dull without you last year. Wherever you are "ribbing" D pneev D dear "ribbing" D pneev D wish you the best of luck, Drew at Ames. D know you'll go far! Susan "Bunny" H.!

Drew—
Well look since I can't think of anything - if you guys from Ames ever come home (to Hueneme) don't forget to come see us! We'll pick up through (to discussions of much the Thanks for discussions Karen Cindy

Drew,
Well I really can't think of to say. Just good luck with

To recall a school year,
one thinks of people
he knew--the ones who sat next to him or shared his locker, who struggled with the same problems or laughed at the same jokes and incidents.

Karen and Solomon find themselves discussing their experiences as AFS students with each other as well as at their many public-speaking engagements.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

A year in Brazil! What a fabulous idea! Seven of us started out to stay there for the school-year program and arrived very homesick and not quite as enthusiastic as before. However, we were soon thrilled by the wonderful things that Brazil offered to us. From the very first I knew what a wonderful family I had. My father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Paulo Garrido, and I worked things out so well; they accepted me as a daughter exactly like their own. Sueli, my 18-year-old sister, and I shared secrets and problems like sisters all over the world. However, Paulo, my 17-year-old brother, and I established a deep friendship from the first night on. We spent lots of time together talking about the problems of our respective countries and helping each other get a fuller picture of each other's life. But the real highlight of my year was school. The girls were the ones to whom I am indebted for so much fun and knowledge of the real Brazil and her unsettled and unsatisfied youth. The friends that I have left behind in them will be the ones I will cherish throughout my lifetime. Brazil is a proud, fun-loving country, and I'm proud to say that I'm part Brazilian.

Karen Blayney
AFS to Brazil, 1962

Here go the weeks, the months, and the year without notice. It is unbelievable for me to realize that I have stayed here a year. It only seems that I have been here a few weeks, but that is the way that everything goes. Before arriving, I thought that I would be homesick but I wasn't because my family (Mr. and Mrs. James Buchner, Jay and Lee) kept me so busy. It was a great pleasure to stay with this family which presented no problem in living with.

I had a wrong idea about the American people before, and my error was realized after knowing all the nice people in Maquoketa. Everyone was so eager to help in every respect and so friendly--the school administration and faculty, the townspeople, and the good-humored student body with an unpredictable interest in me. This is one of the most important and vital experiences that will probably ever occur in my life. I will never forget the red and white cheerleaders, the band, the vocal music department, all the trips with the student council, and the rest of my school friends who helped make my stay in Maquoketa so enjoyable.

Being on the football team has taught me what good sportsmanship is; however, it is a rough game compared to soccer. I have learned more than I did at home and improved in every field of my education.

I have tried to the best of my ability to tell about my country, and I hope that you know what Ethiopia looks like, is like, and will be like. The standard of living is quite different than in America because we are still striving for modernization. We are putting a lot of effort into developing education, politics, and industry. I believe that within a few years the standard of living, the customs, and the education will be more similar to that of the United States.

I have discovered that America is a country composed of people who cooperate with each other and are good examples for the race of mankind. I think that with the United States as a guide, all the smaller countries of the world will have a higher standard of living.

I wish a long-lasting life for the AFS program. Through it, we have more understanding between the different peoples of the world. I really did find it so useful to me now and will be all my life.

Solomon Selassie
AFS from Ethiopia,
1962-63.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

ME??? I made it! After the initial shock of the occasion wears off, a newly elected member soon becomes aware that he really belongs to the National Honor Society. The impressive, serious induction ceremony is filled with joy for the inductees. Only afterwards do the members realize the responsibility that they must bear in living up to the ideals of the Society to which they were elected by the MCHS faculty.

Election into the Robert A. Millikan Chapter of the National Honor Society is the highest honor recognized by MCHS. Membership is awarded to students who are outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. However, only 15 per cent of each class can become members of this honored group. Three induction ceremonies are held for each class--one during the second semester of the junior year and two during the senior year. The chapter was organized in 1957

A.M.O.R.

The Amicable Molestors of Old Rome (A.M.O.R.) is an organization made up of Latin I and Latin II students. Early in the year the group had a picnic at Horseshoe Pond for the initiation of new members. As they did last year, members, under the sponsorship of Mr. Willging, want to refinish an old statue as the club project. When it is completed, it will be placed in the new school.

LIBRARY

Want a book? This is a question asked by student librarians every day. These girls belong to the Library Club. At their monthly meeting problems are discussed.

Janene Ehlers, treasurer; Maylen Ford, president; Connie Hayes, vice president; and Helen Madsen, secretary. The other members are: Kathy Alden, Barb Brown, Jo Ann Cox, Nan Crawford, Jean Heinrich, Lynn Hildebrand, Pat Lord, Jamie Wendel, and Margaret Wilson. Mrs. Julia Mozingo is advisor.

FUTURE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

Future Medical Association is an organization for students who have an interest in a career in medicine. Throughout the year many different professions were stressed by speakers, films, and discussions.

Elizabeth E. Lonergan
Advisor

Where's the paste? Are the pictures back yet? I forgot my write-up!! OH, NO, I didn't bleed the page! DEADLINES, DEADLINES, DEADLINES! All these are familiar expressions heard at the staff meetings every Monday night. A lot of hard work, planning, and exhausted nerves went into this book you are now reading, so be careful with the precious book!

MAQUOKETAN

Harmon Tucker, Advisor; Margie Schmidt, Features; Phyllis Hansen, Editor; Lovelyn Morehead, Asst. Editor; and Drew Robinson, Sports.

This year the MAQUOKETAN has been produced on an extra-curricular basis. Staff meetings were held on Thursday noon and copy came in on Monday. It was then edited, typed, and sent to the local newspaper, THE COMMUNITY PRESS.

"M" CLUB

Athletes who have taken part in basketball, baseball, football, track, and wrestling are qualified to become members of the "M" Club. It is up to this club to see that all athletic equipment is kept in good condition.

Ron Owen, Secretary-Treasurer; Rich O'Hara, Vice President; and Brent Wells, President.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is an organization of the students chosen to represent their class, plus the president from each class. Student Council tackles such tasks as raising money for the American Field Service Program, planning parties, taking charge of Open House, and helping with the Homecoming and Christmas programs. This body is composed of Ron Owen, President; Phil Rasmussen, Vice President; Barb Myatt, Secretary; Dorian Kahler, Treasurer; and representatives Rich O'Hara, Mac McCausland, Linda Klemme, Linda Riley, Lynn Koob, Jeff Allen, Dave Mayberry, and Barb Wherry. Mrs. Ruth Kleis, Mr. Zimmerman, and Mr. Burns are advisors.

Officers other than the ones shown in the picture are: Judy Lenhart, Secretary; Marcia Heide, Historian; Jeanie Nash, Music Chairman; Bonnie Eden, Public Relations; Cheryl Schurbon, Recreation Chairman; and Susan Hayes, District President.

The "heart" of vocational agriculture--the supervised training program--continues to improve. Each class member conducts a learning experiment on his farm with livestock. This provides excellent income possibilities in addition to the opportunity to put into practice some of the things learned in the classroom.

Our chapter meets regularly on the third Monday of the month. We usually have recreation, a program, and refreshments. All these help make our chapter a good one to develop interest and to provide leadership training.

President Norman Kennedy, Vice President Robert Badrick, Secretary Wayne Petersen, Treasurer Roger Durkop, Reporter Roger Gisel, and Sentinel Tom Stamp took part in the sub-district or leadership training program. Other members include Harold Anderson, Richard Badrick, Ronald Behne, Roger Bennett, Jim Coffman, Dennis Foust, Larry Felderman, Richard Harkins, Russel Hart, Galyn Gohlman, Jack Heinrich, David Henry, Jim Ihrig, David Kunde, Garry McPherson, Clifford Merrick, Steve Round, Terrill Saunders, Garry Schnoor, Larry Schnoor, Richard Shanahan, Darrel Stender, Charles Veach, Dennis Wilcox, and Leon Wood. Mr. William Stewart is the advisor.

FHA girls in the Maquoketa chapter are very active, as can be seen from the list of their activities throughout the year. September found them serving the Jackson County dinner and planning for the District Conference which was to be held here in November. An apple-for-the-teacher project was carried out in October as was the installation of officers. December found them collecting and sending in the Butter Nut strips for toys for the needy children. February--they were volunteers for the door-to-door canvass on the Polio Drive. Graduating senior girls were honored during April and plans for the 1963-64 year were being formulated.

F.F.A.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club along with the cheerleaders help boost school spirit. The Club uniform consists of red slacks, white V-neck sweater, and a red and white beany.

To be eligible for a letter or a bar, a girl must earn a certain number of points from wearing uniforms to pep rallies and athletic events, participating in skits at pep rallies, selling programs at football games, and taking charge of the Pep Club bulletin board.

Members are elected on the basis of character, academic standing, and interest and ability in sports. Only sophomore, junior, and senior girls are considered for membership. Mrs. Opal Golden is advisor for both Pep Club and Cheerleaders.

Members other than officers are: Peggy Anderson, Pat Baker, Karen Blankschein, Lu Jean Bramer, Carol Casteel, Marie Creighton, Bonnie Eden, Janene Ehlers, Sharon Gruenwald, Linda Haiar, Sandy Hurley, Dorian Kahler, Pat Lord, Sharon Oster, Sandy Shannon, Sally Spielman, Donna Watters, Carla Willey, Janelle Burleson, Judy Moet, LaNora Shaffer, Judy Watters, and Lois Wilms.

VARIETY SHOW

Annually the MCHS students produce a variety sthow which tops all others, and this year's "A la Carte" was certainly no exception. The students were the ones who really set the show rolling with the help of Mrs. Farnum, Mr. White, Mr. Young, and Mr. Tucker. Individual numbers were practiced again and again; those cute comedy skits had to be thought up; and finally the show was thrown together and gone through almost nightly at frantic rehearsals. Final performances were staged on March 8 and 9, and the capacity audience was enthralled with the two hours of solid entertainment.

The show was started off with the traditional "Another Op'nin', Another Show," and then it led to a night club scene, a ski lodge, and the West Side Story sequence. The second section took place in a hotel dine-and-dance room, and the third part was organized around the old theme of the handsome boy who pays no attention to the many girls flocking around him.

The highlight of the show was the finale with 200 students appearing en masse on stage. It included "All You Need is a Song," "Out of This World," "Like Jazz," "Mangos," and "Tonight."

The various chairmen were: Set crew, Tom Goodall; props, Jocilla Holst; publicity, Karen Blayney; posters, Gerry Templeton; costumes, Karen Blankschein; make-up, Janice Merrick; lighting, Steve Ohs and Jim P. Smith; and sound, Mr. Gerry Miller.

Mrs. Farnum, Mr. Tucker, and Mr. White emphasized that the variety show cast involved so many students that is impossible to mention or recognize them all. However, they felt that each and every boy and girl was, in his own right, a theatrical standout.

VOCAL MUSIC

The annual Christmas Concert, given by the vocal music department and sponsored by the Student Council, was presented December 21.

The program opened with the All-State number, "Let All the Nations Praise the Lord." "Jesu, Priceless Treasure" and "The Virgin's Slumber Song" were sung by the Girls' Glee. They were accompanied by Sue Holtry on the vibraharp and Pat Leonard on the bells and chimes. The finale featured the 150 singers combined to sing "Two Kings" with two trumpets and the recessional to "Silent Night."

During the entirety of the program different scenes were presented on the stage. Richard Hovey, Janice Merrick, and Drew Robinson represented different nationalities. Judy Moet, JoAnn Cox, Sally Speilman, and Jocilla Holst also took part in the stage scenes.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Angels paying homage to the Virgin Mary and the Child Jesus. Judy Moet took the part of Mary in this scene. Several pictorial scenes were presented as special features at this Christmas program. The angels, a group of dancers, appeared in various poses. Choreography by Cathy Cornelius, a senior.

THE ANGELS: (not listed as they appeared) Jeannie Adams, Kathy Alden, Shirley Beck, Sharon Beedle, Karen Blankschein, Barb Brown, Carol Casteel, Nan Crawford, Phyllis Dutton, Janene Ehlers, Jean Fleming, Joyce Hardin, Susan Hayes, Deanna Kelly, Margie Knackstedt, Jeanne Nash, Cindy Rasmussen, and Marg Yocum.

Jeanette Nash (center kneeling) represented the Virgin Mary.

ALL-STATE

Eight vocal music students traveled to Des Moines last Thanksgiving to sing in the 600 voice All-State Chorus. The two quartets consisted of Pat Trimble, Gretchen Arp, Mike Koon, Gene Romer, Nancy Henton, Cheryl Hoerschelman, Clifford Cornelius, and Phil Rasmussen. Guest conductor for the Chorus was Robert Page, of Temple University, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

All-State tryouts were held at Iowa City Public High School on October 26. Maquoketa's vocal department auditioned seven quartets. The members included the eight that were selected, plus Marcia Heide, Barb Myatt, Bill Frej, Jeff Allen, Sue Collins, Phyllis Hansen, Bill Gold, John Schaaf, Sue Holtry, Gayle Lary, Terry Tellefson, Wayne Wagoner, Lu-Jean Bramer, Dorian Kahler, Gary Starr, Ron Sagers, Jill Woods, Judy Lenhart, Paul Zidlicky, Jack Broman, with Maylen Ford, George Brown, JoAnn Lane, and Don Meyer as the alternates.

For the first time in history, our football teams had a real practice field. Since the distance to the new school site is rather lengthy, the players had a good long run before beginning calisthenics.

New protective equipment was used by the players and each outfit cost approximately $150.

Twelve seniors played their last football for MCHS this season: Rich O'Hara, Brent Wells, Ron Werden, Doug Owen, Gary Strong, Steve Ohs, Terry Tellefson, Bill Behrend, Richard Rockrohr, Ron Owen, John O'Brien, and Solomon Selassie (foreign exchange student who went out for practice each night and was one of the kickers).

Two fine linesmen deserve special mention, according to sports writers. They are Bill Behrend, who is considered one of the best defensive linesmen in the WaMac Conference, and Brent Wells.

This was Ron Owen's first year out and he did a commendable job and some outstanding playing for the Cards. Joe Bullock racked up 80 yards for a touchdown at the Independence Homecoming game. As a quarterback, Richard O'Hara had approximately one third of the Cards' rushing plays. He completed one-half of his 20 passes, never having one intercepted. Rich is a good punter and has a 36.4 average.

Our team ended the season in sixth place in the WaMac Conference. The eight lettermen were: Richard O'Hara, Brent Wells, Bill Behrend, Gary Starr, Steve Ohs, Gary Strong, and Joe Bullock.

It is said by the experts that "It's not the size of the dog in the fight; it's the size of the fight in the dog."

One of the improvements from a coaching standpoint was a 300 lbs. blocking and tackling sled.

Although the sophomores finished the season with five losses, Mr. Kaye Young, Coach, made the following comment: "The sophomores show promise and with the return of several key players who were injured all year (Jack Broman, Cliff Cornelius, Bill Schroeder to name three), this will be a team that will give opposing teams all they can handle in a couple of years."

WRESTLING

Four years ago the present seniors and Coach Kaye D. Young arrived simultaneously at Maquoketa High. This group of wrestlers has had a major role in the overall record of 46 wins and 8 losses. Leading this year's squad to an undefeated season and extending their dual record to a school record of 27 wins in a row were the following:

CO-CAPTAIN BRENT WELLS--with a career record of 34 wins, 4 losses, and one tie, and three trips to the State tournament!

CO-CAPTAIN DALE CARR--with a career record of 28 wins and 2 losses, and two trips to the State tournament!

CO-CAPTAIN DALE WOOD--wrestled Varsity for the first time this year and was undefeated in dual meets and placed 3rd in the State tournament!

CHUCK KIRBY--three year letterman!

TERRY TELLEFSON--two year letterman!

STEVE OHS--two year letterman!

JOHN O'BRIEN--three year letterman!

HOME

Homecoming festivities got under way the night before the game with a rousing bonfire held at Goodenow Field. With the cheering in full swing, hopes were high for a victory the next night with the Independence Mustangs. Coach Dahlberg gave the gathering a pep talk, after which the hopeless replica of an Independence football player was literally "burned at the stake." Downtown Maquoketa was all decked out in traditional school spirit with the store windows plastered with cheers for the Cards. Stimulating pep talks were given at the afternoon pep meeting by three former grads--Margaret Walker, Alan Keck, and Mrs. Clayton Turner (the former Bonnie Bolte). Enthusiasm ran high, and a victory was rung up for MCHS on the score board.

Janice Brownell, Steve Wright, Linda Klemme, Bill Behrend, Dorian Kahler, Phil Rasmussen, Barb Myatt, Terry Tellefson, Phyllis Dutton, and Brent Wells.

A novelty in the Homecoming gaiety was that the dance and coronation ceremony were held on Saturday night, rather than the usual Friday night after the game. New this year was the method in which the royalty were selected. The king candidates were nominated by the senior class and voted on by the entire student body.

The coronation ceremonies began at ten o'clock, with the crowning of Susan Hayes, Queen, and Rich O'Hara, King. Music was furnished by Joey Paridisio.

KING CANDIDATES: Brent Wells, Ron Owen, Dale Carr, Rich O'Hara.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

The 1961 King and Queen, Dick Wood and Nancy Manning, presided over the coronation ceremony crowning Susan Hayes, QUEEN, and Rich O'Hara, KING. Ruthie Broman and Hal Turner were the crown bearers.

TEAHOUSE OF THE AUGUST MOON

Problems! Problems! One right after another came to all involved in the all-school play production of "The Teahouse of the August Moon."

"Does anyone have any idea how to get that Army jeep on stage?" "One, two, three, everyone pull the backdrops at the same time!" and other remarks like this could be heard back stage.

Goats! Don't mention one to Mr. Tucker or to the play cast! It was learned by experience that they will eat anything--ropes (which it did and therefore gave everyone some exercise chasing it), hats, (which John Leaven can testify to), and burlap sacks. Also, goats can be a bit messy at times. (Just ask Tom Goodall--he did the cleaning up.)

And who could ever forget the waterfall that spurted and babbled, spurted and spurted and . . . Have you ever tried to give a play while standing in an inch of water? And there was the very timely line said by Bob Tooman while standing in this inch of water--"We shall not sink in the ocean."

All of these incidents seemed like tragedies at the time, but as time goes on, they will be just another page in your "fond book of memories." A page labeled--"Our Play, 1962."

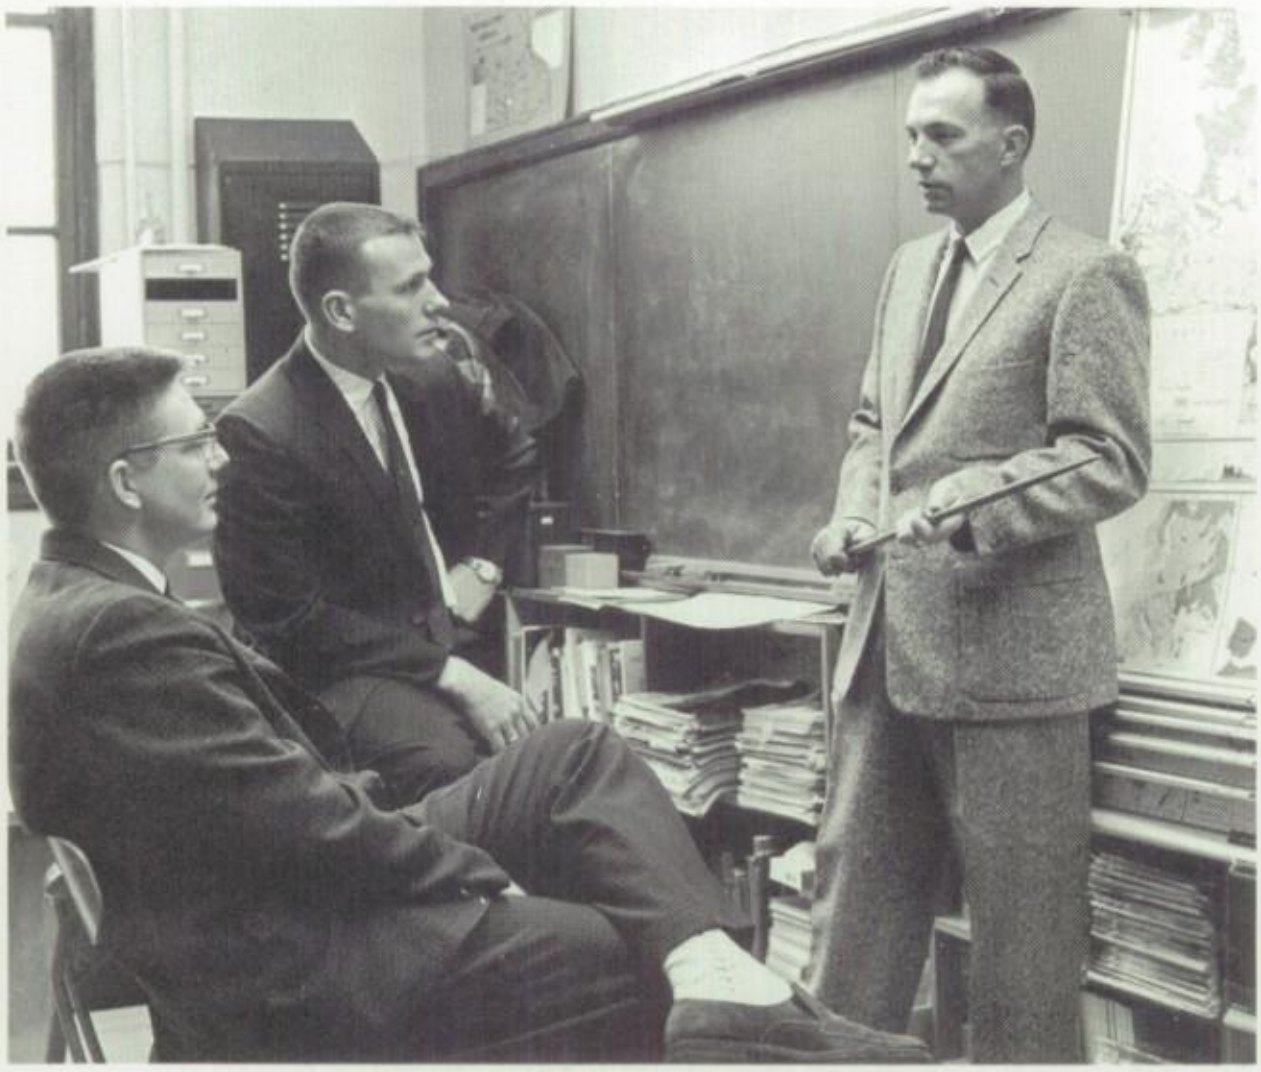
CURRICULUM



SOCIAL STUDIES

Social studies in MCHS consists of world geography in the freshman year for selected students, American history which is required during the sophomore year, world history in the junior year, and the senior year is a combination of American government and social problems. Through these studies, the students are expected to gain a broader background on world events and studies.

MR. KAYE D. YOUNG: B.A., State College of Iowa. His duties at MCHS are teaching Social Studies II and coaching wrestling, golf, and sophomore football. Mr. Young is married and has two small boys, Mike and Mark. Reading and sports are included in his interests.

MR. DON SCHLOTFELT: B.A., Iowa Wesleyan. Although busy teaching Social Studies III and coaching Varsity basketball, Mr. Schlotfelt still finds time for his favorite hobbies of fishing and hunting. He is also married and has three children, two girls and one boy.

MR. DWIGHT ZIMMERMAN: B.S., from Washington and M.A. from U.C.L.A. Mr. Zimmerman teaches Social Studies IV and world geography besides being on the Student Council. During the summer, he plays baseball and enjoys hunting, fishing, and various crafts. He and his wife have three boys and one girl.

ENGLISH

English is a course in communication skills. It includes grammar, speech, literature, and theme writing. It is designed to give practice in the communication skills and a greater appreciation of literature. Journalism is also a part of English, since it communicates ideas and stories on a common ground to all the students in schools.

MR. ROBERT HIATT: B.A. and M.A., State University of Iowa. Mr. Hiatt teaches English I and English IV. His hobbies include golf, records, swimming, and traveling during the summer months.

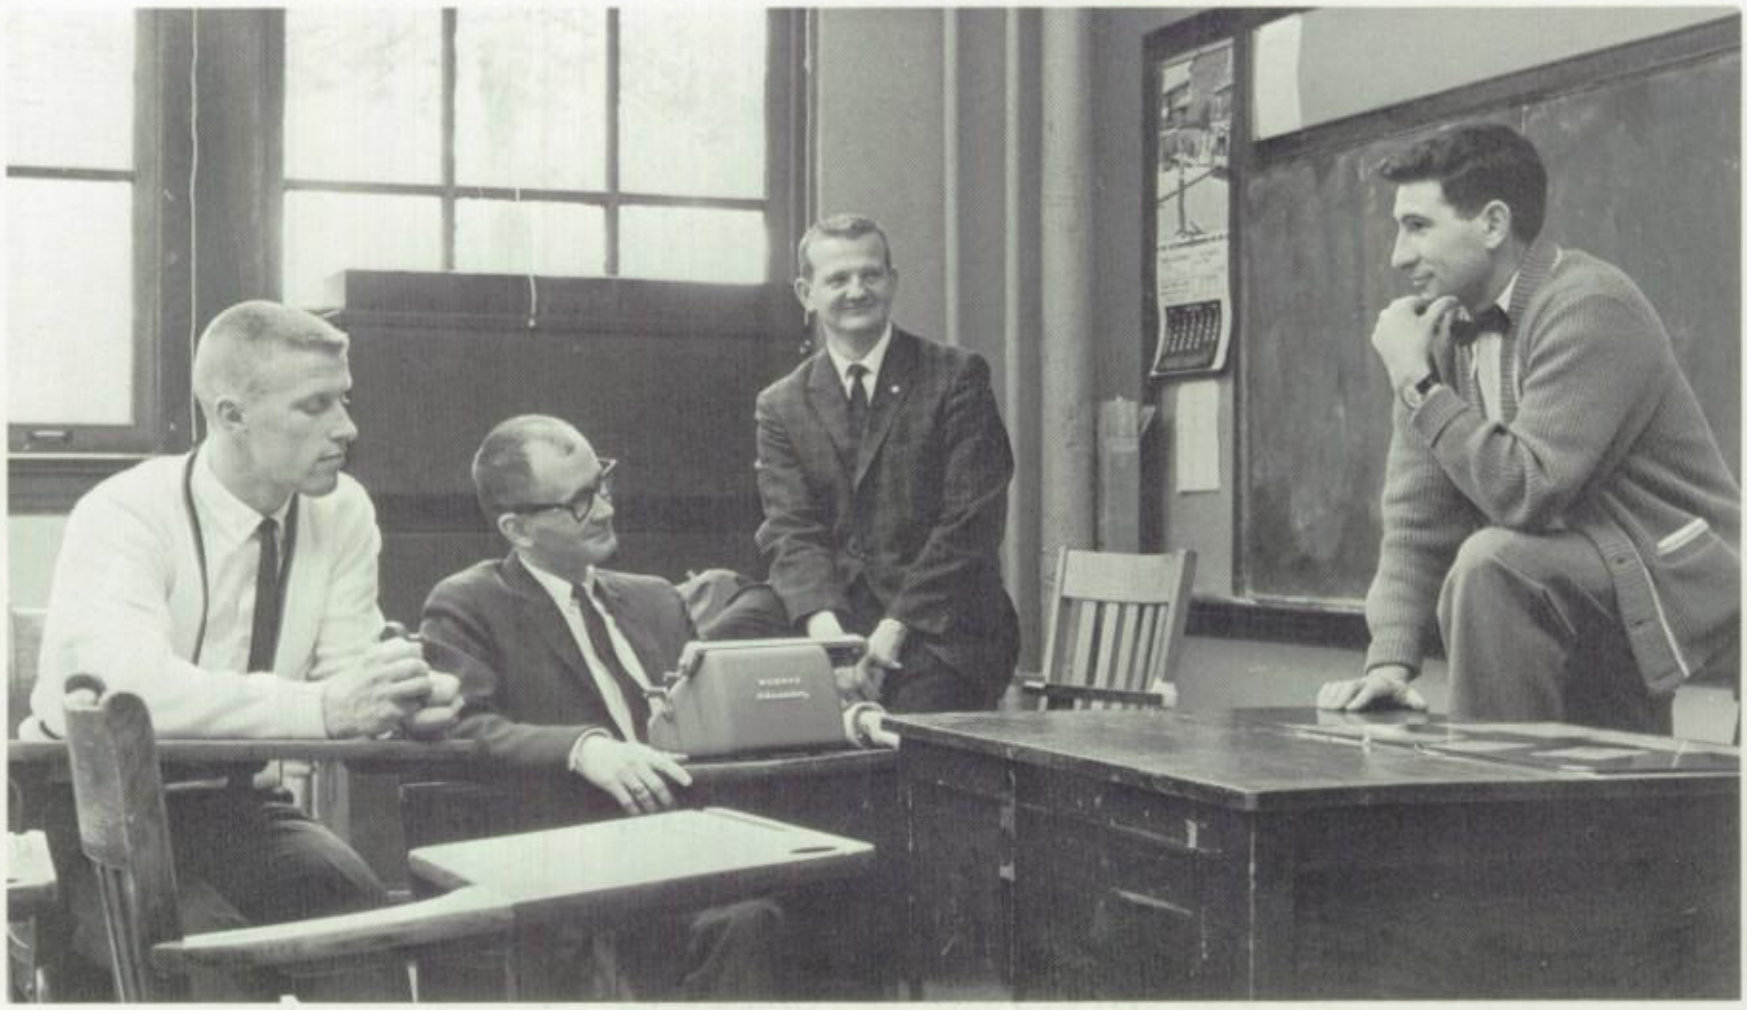
MR. HARMON TUCKER: B.S., Northeast Missouri State Teachers (Kirksville). Teaching speech and English III, and being drama coach occupy Mr. Tucker's teaching time. He and his wife have two children--a boy and a girl.

MRS. AGNES H. EVANS: B.S., Central Missouri State; M.S., Drake University. Mrs. Evans includes English I, II, and III as the subjects she teaches. She is interested in flowers and likes to read books and travel.

MRS. JULIA MOZINGO: B.A., Parsons College; M.A., State University of Iowa. Mrs. Mozingo is the school librarian and teaches English I and II. In her spare time she likes to read.

MRS. LOLITA BENSON: B.A., University of Dubuque. Four classes of English is her teaching load--one class of English I and three of English II. Mrs. Benson is a graduate of Lost Nation High School and Maquoketa Junior College. She has three children, all graduates of MCHS.

The mathematics department offers quite a variety of courses: General Math I and II, Algebra I and II, geometry, and elementary analysis. In our modern space age, math is much used and much in demand, as it always has been for our common everyday uses. It also helps greatly in the student's capacity in reasoning power.



MATHEMATICS

MR. DAVID EUGENE WEBER: B.S., Iowa State University, majoring in physical education, with minors in math and driver's education. Mr. Weber is a graduate of Argyle High School, Argyle, Iowa. He attended Keokuk Junior College for two years, and completed his education at Iowa State University. Mr. Weber did his practice teaching here during the fall term. He comes from a family of six, having two brothers and three sisters.

MR. RICHARD MITCHELL: B.A., State College of Iowa. Mr. Mitchell teaches earth science and General Math I. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell have a daughter, Stacy. In his spare time, Mr. Mitchell likes to listen to records.

MR. SHERMAN BURNS: B.S., Iowa Wesleyan College; M.A., Arizona State College. Mr. Burn's teaching load is geometry, Algebra II, and elementary analysis. Mr. and Mrs. Burns have two children--Mike and Michelle. His hobbies include hunting and fishing.

MR. KENNETH M. MALLAS: B.A., Iowa State University; M.A., Drake University. Mr. Mallas teaches Algebra I, General Math II, and coaches freshman basketball and football. He enjoys all athletics and National Guard. His family consists of two children--a boy and a girl.

MR. JAMES DAHLBERG: B.A., Coe College. Class work for Mr. Dahlberg includes teaching classes in biology and general science. He is also our varsity football and track coach, and coaches sophomore basketball as well. Mr. Dahlberg enjoys all outdoor activities, such as hunting and fishing. He and his wife have three children--one boy and two girls.

MR. HENRY J. DICKINSON: B.S., Iowa State University. Mr. Dickinson's teaching load this year includes chemistry, physics, and science seminar. He is married and has three children--Marjorie, Joanne, and Mary Lou; he also has six grandchildren. Reading, spectator sports, and bridge number among his interests.

SCIENCE

Without science we would not have world progress. Science is important to everyone. The field of science includes biology, earth science, general science, chemistry, physics, and science seminar. Physics is basic to all the sciences, and it deals with matter and energy. The aim of chemistry is to teach the structure of matter. Biology is the study of plants and animals, while general science is a means of developing a knowledge of certain elementary laws. Along this line, too, earth science deals with the earth and the universe. In this modern world of rocket ships and new discoveries, how can we appreciate all the progress that is being made, without some understanding of the sciences?

MRS. JANICE BUCHANAN: B.S., State University of Iowa. Mrs. Buchanan is the advisor of the Future Medical Association and is also the school nurse. In her spare time she likes to read and knit.

VOCATIONAL

Vocational agriculture consists of determining, studying, and reaching conclusions in problems concerning crops, soils, livestock, farm mechanics and management as they occur today in the operation of a farm.

Vocational homemaking is planned by the girls and based on needs and interests as they look ahead to careers, additional training, or homemaking.

Business Education is a very important part of the curriculum. It includes typing, clerical and secretarial practice, shorthand, bookkeeping, and general business. It introduces the use of the different types of machines used in the business office. The business world needs well trained people to successfully carry out the demands of competitive enterprise.

MISS MARION M. DAVIS: B.S., State College of Iowa. Miss Davis teaches eighth grade homemaking, and Homemaking I,II, and III, and is the sponsor for the Future Homemakers of America. In her spare time she enjoys reading, sewing, and collecting cookbooks.

MR. WILLIAM W. STEWART: B.S. and M.S., State University of Iowa. He teaches Vocational Agriculture I,II, and III, and a class in general science. Mr. Stewart is sponsor of the Future Farmers of America. He enjoys photography and likes to camp out with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart have two boys and two girls.

MR. HAROLD SWANSON: B.S.C., State University of Iowa. Mr. Swanson teaches personal typing, two classes of bookkeeping and a class in general business. He is married and has three girls and one boy.

MISS ELIZABETH E. LONERGAN: B.A., State College of Iowa. Her classroom assignments are secretarial science, clerical practice, Shorthand I, and two classes in Typing I. She is the advisor for the EXODUS. Miss Lonergan enjoys traveling.

MR. ARNO GRABE: B.A., State College of Iowa. Mr. Grabe teaches driver education and industrial arts. He and his wife have five children. He likes to travel and he enjoys working in his home workshop.

MR. CLIFFORD ULVESTAD: B.A., Luther College. Industrial Arts I, II, and III, and a class in mechanical drawing is Mr. Ulvestad's teaching load. Mr. and Mrs. Ulvestad have two children--Gene, a teacher in the Cedar Rapids High School, and Carol, a teacher in the Maquoketa Elementary.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The major aim of the Industrial Arts courses is to give pupils the experience in the use of manual skills, woodworking, related subject matter, mechanical drawing, and a knowledge of safety practices.

GUIDANCE

MR. WAYNE S. SESKER: B.A., State College of Iowa; M.A., Colorado State College. Mr. Sesker is the guidance counselor, teaching guidance to all freshmen and a semester of psychology. Mr. Sesker and his wife have one boy, Scott. He is an avid wrestling fan and also enjoys hunting and bowling.

During the high school course group guidance, a testing program, and individual conferences are provided for each student. The test results and other data are used to give the student a better picture of himself and to assist parents and teachers to obtain a better understanding of the student and his potential. The ultimate aim is to make each student a better adjusted and more successful citizen.

Our school offers two foreign languages--Latin and French. French is spoken in class; many students will be able to use this language when they have finished the course. Latin, however, not being a commonly spoken language, provides the background for many of today's common languages. Latin serves still a more important purpose in that it encourages the student to train his mind to concentrate completely on his translation, and the result is that he has developed the ability to concentrate on any job.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

MRS. RUTH KLEIS: B.A., Simpson College. All French students have Mrs. Kleis for their instructor, since she teaches French I,II,III, and IV. She is also one of the Student Council advisors. Mrs. Kleis has two children--a boy in seventh grade and a daughter, who is a freshman at Wisconsin State College. In her spare time, Mrs. Kleis enjoys reading.

MR. H. RONALD WILLGING: A.B., Loras College. Besides being the A.M.O.R. Club advisor, Mr. Willging teaches Social Studies II, and two years of Latin. Water sports, tennis, and electrical work are among his interests.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical education and health is a required course for girls and boys scheduled two periods a week. In the fall outdoor activities are stressed. During the winter volleyball, basketball and wrestling are chief sports with fundamentals being stressed especially for the lower classes. Spring activities include track and field events and softball, football and rythmn work badminton and tennis for the girls.

MR. HENRY KOOB: B.A., Wartburg College; M.A., State University of Iowa. Mr. Koob is the athletic director and teaches Boys' Physical Education. He enjoys camping, hunting, fishing, and all sports.

MRS. OPAL GOLDEN: B.S., Northwest Missouri State College. Teaching Girls' Physical Education, and sponsoring Pep Club and cheerleading keeps her busy at school. When she has spare time she likes to do handiwork and read. She is also interested in all sports.

Maquoketa Community High School is a member of the Iowa High School Music Association, which sponsors both instrumental and vocal music events. Included in the instrumental program is marching, concert, and pep band, and ensemble groups.

The vocal music program consists of Girls' Glee Club, mixed chorus, special choir, junior choir, and All-State chorus. Both band and vocal groups join other WaMaC schools in an annual music festival. Another big event of the year is participation in Variety Show.

The chief objective of the Art program is to "stimulate emotional and mental response to beauty which will lead toward discriminating taste and greater enjoyment and appreciation of art and nature." The courses offered involve experimentation in drawing, painting, sculpture, and problems in technique in water color, oils, gauche, and frescoe painting.

MRS. JANICE FARNUM: B.A., Upper Iowa University. Mrs. Farnum is the vocal music director. She and her husband have two boys. Her interests are reading and music.

MR. EARL RAE: B.F.A., Drake University and M.E.D., Arizona State University. Mr. Rae taught art and crafts. He left at the end of the first semester to take over a new field of work. Mr. and Mrs. Rae have two children.

MR. JAMES WHITE: B.S., South Dakota State Teachers. He teaches instrumental music. Mr. White enjoys arranging music. He and Mrs. White have four children.

MR. DENNIS YOUNG: B.A., State University of Iowa. Mr. Young teaches instrumental music in the grades and junior high; he helps to direct the Concert Band and give individual lessons on woodwind instruments. He is interested in all types of sports.

THE ARTS

NEAL McGUFFIN: B.A., State College of Iowa. Mr. McGuffin came to MCHS at the beginning of the second semester to teach art and crafts. He has had four years of teaching experience in the Ottumwa High School. He recently finished a term at U.C.L.A. Peace Corps. He has been a Boy Scout leader and is much interested in all types of sports.

As in past years the junior class sold magazines for the Curtis Magazine Company. We didn't quite meet our goal in sales. The total was $2,497, and our goal was $3,250. Top salesman was Dick Ewing who received a transistor radio. Joe Bullock, second high, received a camera; and LuJean Bramer, a transistor radio for special subscriptions. This money plus the earnings of previous years will be used to finance our junior-senior prom next spring.

Over 500 students registered for the opening of school this fall--the largest enrollment MCHS has had. The sophomores headed the list with a total of 158 students and the freshman class placed second with a total of 149. The halls and classrooms are really crowded, and there is much hurrying and scurrying to get to and from the Youth Center where many classes are held each day. Our hopes are high that we will have a new school building by the fall of '63.

OUTSTANDING STUDENTS

The Maquoketa Optimist Club selected a boy and a girl from Community High who they thought deserved public recognition for their outstanding achievement and service to school and community. The faculty of MCHS were asked to name one boy and one girl they thought had done outstanding work in school and for the community. Thirteen candidates were chosen from the junior-senior classes. Four finalists, Cathy Cornelius, Helen Mitchell, Rich O'Hara, and Norman Kennedy were picked by a committee of Optimist Club members. These people were invited to attend a special breakfast on Wednesday, November 14. At that time Cathy Cornelius and Rich O'Hara were named the Outstanding Students.

The purpose for Youth Achievement Week, according to Mr. Don Schlotfelt, youth work chairman, is "to focus public attention on the many good things our young people do." "Our selecting two outstanding young people for our Youth Achievement Week Award," says Mr. Schlotfelt, "is in some small measure public recognition of our young people as a whole, and a tribute and a gesture of appreciation for what they accomplish for school and community."

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

"Shangri-La," meaning land of paradise, was the theme for the 1963 Junior-Senior Prom, which was held at the Maquoketa Country Club on Friday, May 17. The evening began with a buffet supper, something initiated this year by the junior class. The menu for the buffet included: niku (baked ham), gyo-uo (fish fillet), baku maku (green beans), daku-shi (candied potatoes), toku man (parsley potatoes), hitsu hiki (salad table), gyunyu (milk), and atsu cha (iced tea). The buffet was followed by a reception. Dancing got under way at 9 o'clock with music by Jack Cole and his orchestra. Fortune cookies were a novelty, which helped bring out the theme of the evening. The program which began at 11 o'clock, included the welcome given by Mac MacCausland and the response by Ron Owen. LuJean Bramer, Barbara Myatt, Gary Starr, and Ron Sagers sang "Halls of Ivy," and a magic act was presented by the Honorable Won Wag (Wayne Wagoner). The act included filling Mr. Walden's hat with two raw eggs and catsup and stirring well. Sadly enough, the "trick" didn't work. A message was given by Dr. J. A. Broman, and the evening was climaxed by the song "Shangri-La," sung by Nancy Henton and accompanied by Mrs. Farnum. Dancing went on until 1 o'clock, after which many private parties were held.

GOLF

The field of golf has been extended and the school now permits girls to compete in a competitive sport. There were 14 girls and 19 boys out for golf this year. The Girls' District meet was held on May 10 at Waterloo, and the Boys' on May 11 at Independence. None of the golfers were fortunate enough to go on to the State.

SCIENCE FAIR

Virgil Banowetz

The climax to hours of hard work in experimenting and evaluating was the annual Science Fair which was held March 25 in the MCHS auditorium. A record of 107 exhibits was displayed in the fair. The science seminar class under the direction of Mr. Henry Dickinson arranged the display area and took charge of organizing the project. Mr. L. H. Gerk from Collins Radio Company, Cedar Rapids, was the chief judge for the event. Winners were as follows (first place): physics, Carol Casteel; chemistry, Wayne Wagoner; seminar, Helen Mitchell; mathematics, Linda Jorgensen; agriculture, Lois Wilms; earth science, Elaine Rockrohr; and biology, Mike Koon. First place overall went to Gary Strong, who also received the award for the most attractive exhibit. Second overall was won by Mac McCausland. Drew Robinson won the best award in nuclear physics, and there was a three-way tie for the best project in health and medicine among Wayne Wagoner, Gretchen Arp, and Larry Williams.

Mr. Henry Dickinson, Mac McCausland, Jay Buchner, Elaine Rockrohr, Marty Ralston, and the seminar class of seven students--Richard Rockrohr, Jean Fleming, Gayle Lary, Gary Strong, Drew Robinson, Ron Werden, and Helen Mitchell were represented in the Eastern Iowa Science Fair, held in the Coe College Fieldhouse on April 6 and 7 in Cedar Rapids. Maquoketa came home with seven awards: Virgil Banowetz, Class I award; Gary Strong and Helen Mitchell, Division II award; Jean Fleming, Mac McCausland and Drew Robinson, Honorable Mention; and Ron Werden, best award in space arodynamics. The two-day fair included tours of Collins Radio, Mercy Hospital, and Hall Radiation Center, interviews with judges, and explanation of projects to the public, and the awards assembly.

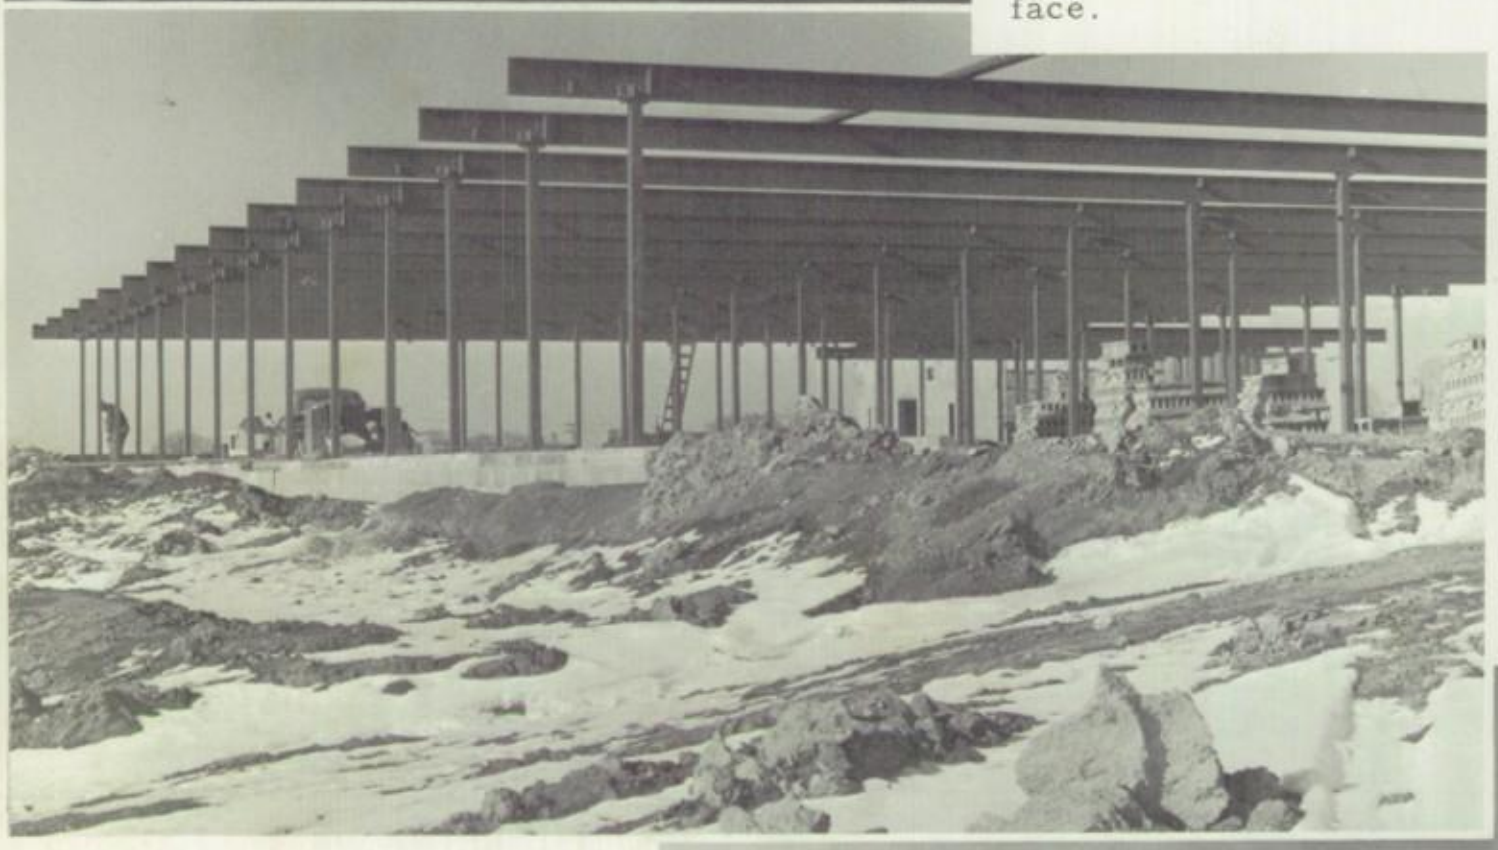
A TRIBUTE TO MHS

This is the last year your halls will resound with the echoes of slamming locker doors, talking and laughter by high school students, and the thud of hundreds of footsteps down your busy corridors. We will miss you, MHS, especially the seniors, who remember how you have been a statute of learning for forty years, and have taught our parents and housed all of us within your protective walls. No, we'll never forget all you have stood for. In years to come, your halls will still be crowded, but by younger students learning in the ways we have learned; but to us, you are our alma mater, and we'll always remember your weatherbeaten, but stately face.



THE OLD AND THE NEW

A NEW HIGH SCHOOL! Maquoketa has finally realized its dreams in the "go-ahead" vote of Maquoketa citizens, who oked the proposal for the new building. It is scheduled to be completed by the fall of 1963, in time for the opening of the '63-'64 school year.

Mr. Sikkink and Mr. Walden survey the plans for the new school building.

Drew,
Best of luck always to a swell guy!
I've certainly enjoyed knowing you these last four years and I'm really glad this last year brought us closer together. I'll never forget Jim's room and all the trouble we got in — the maquoketan and all the words we said trying to get stories in on time. I could go on and on but since there isn't room & won't. Again good luck in college and always. If you ever need someone to write to — while in school you know I'd be glad to hear from you.
Judy

Drew,
Too bad we could never get together on the Davenport trip. Best of luck at college and don't flunk out before me
Fletch

Drew,
Yoúre a nice guy and all, but when the hell are you going to give me back The Hidden Persuaders and Latin?
L. B.

Dear Drew —
I've known you for so long - it hardly seems rite that youre going off to college !! Good luck in every thing you do - and hope that some day I'll make the grade too.
Katy

Dear Drew,
Good luck at college & don't flunk out before me.
Fletch

Drew,
You're a nice guy and all, but when the hell are you going to give me back The Hidden Persuaders and Latin?
